

CONTEST AWARD CEREMONY AT NOON
SPECIAL SHOW BY REPTILES ALIVE!

Join Us As We Celebrate World Water Monitoring Day

8th Annual

Family Stream Day

Saturday, October 17, from 10–3, at Claude Moore Park

Games and Crafts for Kids | See Live Animals and Insects
“Pin” Point Your Watershed | Travel Through the Water Cycle As a
Water Drop | Learn About Underground Caves | Pollute and Clean a
Mini-town | Protect Streams From Illegal Dumping and more
This event is free; see you there!

Info: www.loudounwatershedwatch.org

Event partners include:

Our host: Claude Moore Park; Audubon Naturalist Society, Piedmont Environmental Council, Loudoun Water, Loudoun Wildlife Conservancy, Keep Loudoun Beautiful, Loudoun Soil and Water Conservation District, Loudoun County Agencies, and other Loudoun Watershed Watch member organizations. This event is cohosted by the Loudoun Environmental Stewardship Alliance.

CLAUDE MOORE PARK'S HISTORIC AREA, 21668 HERITAGE FARM LANE, STERLING (PARK AT THE HERITAGE FARM MUSEUM)